Welcome

A well-presented two-bedroom upper flat with the added bonus of a private balcony — a welcome touch of outdoor space that is a real rarity for a property of this type. Situated in a popular area of Dunfermline, this is an attractive option for first-time buyers, professionals, or investors seeking a quality and low-maintenance home. The accommodation features a bright 12-foot lounge with direct access to the private balcony — a lovely spot to enjoy morning coffee or an evening unwind. A separate kitchen with ample storage and worktop space, and a family bathroom with bath, WC, and wash hand basin complete the core living areas. Two good-sized bedrooms provide comfortable sleeping accommodation, both offering well-proportioned double rooms at almost 11 feet each. There is private residents parking and ample space for visitors. Communal grounds and gardens. Please note there is a factor payable for buildings insurance and communal areas.

EXTRAS INC. IN SALE/AGENTS NOTE

All floor coverings, blinds, bathroom and light fittings together with integrated appliances.

From 1st February 2022, residential properties in Scotland are required by law to have installed a system of inter-linked smoke alarms, carbon monoxide detectors and heat detectors (the "inter-linked system"). No warranty is given that any interlinked system has been installed in this property and interested parties should make their own enquiries.

Dunfermline

Once the ancient capital of Scotland and now a proudly crowned city - earning its official status in May 2022 during the Queen's Platinum Jubilee celebrations - Dunfermline is a place where history runs deep and ambition runs deeper. This is the city that gave the world Andrew Carnegie, where King Robert the Bruce rests beneath the arches of its magnificent Abbey, and where medieval streets now hum with modern energy. Steeped in heritage yet firmly forward-looking, Dunfermline blends the grandeur of Carnegie's Birthplace Museum, the Abbey and Abbot House with the contemporary vision of the Carnegie Museum and Library - a city that wears its past proudly while embracing its future. Dunfermline is ideally placed. Just five miles from the iconic Forth Bridges, it offers effortless access to Edinburgh via the M90, with swift onward links to Perth, Dundee, Stirling, Glasgow and beyond. Two railway stations deliver regular services into the capital and intercity connections across the UK, while comprehensive bus routes keep the wider region within easy reach. Day-to-day living is equally well served, with an excellent range of shops, leisure facilities, restaurants and highly regarded schools - everything you'd expect from a city that has been at the heart of Scottish life for over a thousand years.
