LOCATION

Turnpike Farm lies in a private and rural setting, on the west of the Isle of Wight, within easy access of Yarmouth and Newport (both 5 miles away). A five-bar wooden gate off Elm Lane opens onto a gravelled driveway with generous parking. The house is positioned in the middle of the countryside with far reaching views of Brighstone Down. Essential shopping, restaurants and pubs can be found in either Newport and Yarmouth. Nearby Shalfleet Quay and the Newtown Estuary, owned by the National Trust, are famous for their salt marshlands and are perfect for walking enthusiasts. The Calbourne to Yarmouth former railway, The Greenway, is soon to be opened for walkers/cyclists, adding an additional attraction to this area. Yarmouth and Cowes, popular for sailing, offer Wightlink/Redfunnel car/pedestrian ferry services and mainline train connections.
