£650,000 FREEHOLD

Occupying a somewhat unique situation and enjoying lovely coastal views, an historic four bedroom seafront house, with off road parking.

The property is situated to the western end of Sidmouth's esplanade and enjoys a stunning south aspect with views to the sea, along the coast and the esplanade. The town centre is within a short stroll and offers an excellent range of amenities and the property boasts off road parking, which is very unusual for a property in this location.

Being Grade II Listed, the property is of some considerable age and is now in need of general improvement and modernisation throughout. The accommodation is arranged over three floors with some secondary glazing to the windows and most rooms have electric heaters.

To the south side an entrance porch opens into the reception hall, with the staircase rising to the upper floors and there is a useful cloaks/WC, fitted with a WC and wash basin. The main living room to the ground floor was probably the original dining room and enjoys a dual aspect, taking full advantage of the views to the sea and along the esplanade. A central fireplace has a fitted gas fire. A separate dining room also has a view to the south aspect and has fitted cupboards, drawers and shelving and opens into the adjoining kitchen which is to the rear aspect. This has a Belfast sink with adjoining surfaces and there is space for appliances along with a door giving access to Peak Hill Road. The kitchen also has a walk-in larder and storage cupboard.

To the first floor there are two bedrooms, the larger bedroom being the original first floor sitting room, having high ceilings and a concealed fireplace. This room enjoys a lovely triple aspect to the south, east and north elevation, therefore taking full advantage of the views. A second bedroom faces south and has a fitted wardrobe and there is a separate dressing room with recently added partitioning enclosing a small shower unit. Through the dressing room is an adjoining bathroom fitted with a panelled bath with shower over along with a WC, wash basin and airing cupboard.

To the second floor there are the original servant's rooms, having slightly low ceilings (1.8m) which are currently being used as two bedrooms, one enjoying an east aspect along the esplanade. Both bedrooms have storage cupboards and off the landing is a further large storage cupboard.

The outside space/garden area is immediately to the south side of the house and is mainly paved. Wooden gates open onto the parking space.

Sidmouth's town centre offers a broad range of amenities to include independent shops, High Street chains and popular restaurants and also a theatre, cinema, Waitrose and Lidl supermarkets and the Beacon Medical Health Centre.
