Nestled in the South Downs National Park, this exceptional detached Grade II Listed thatched cottage beautifully combines timeless character with stylish contemporary living. Rich in charm and period features throughout, the property offers an idyllic countryside retreat with versatile accommodation. Adding further appeal are two beautifully converted annexes (formerly stables), each offering independent accommodation complete with their own kitchens and shower rooms which is ideal for guests, holiday lets, or multi-generational living.

The heart of the home is beautifully appointed modern kitchen/dining room, which has been fitted with a range of base and eye level units with space for appliances, hardwood bi-fold doors out to the garden and is complete with underfloor heating. The property offers an inviting dual aspect living room with a feature log burner, creating a warm and cosy atmosphere, while a separate drawing room with an additional log burner provides further elegant reception space. From here, access leads through to the utility room and ground floor bathroom, with a door opening directly onto the garden.

The principal bedroom suite enjoys a dressing room and ensuite bathroom, while a further generous double bedroom also benefits from its own ensuite facilities.

Outside, the mature gardens provide a peaceful and private setting, featuring attractive terraces ideal for outdoor dining and relaxation.

The property is approached via a large gravel driveway, providing ample parking for 12 cars.
