FORMAL GARDEN

Attractively laid out in front of the original part of the house, in a parterre style, with clipped formal box hedging, gravelled paths and cylindrical shaped yew tree topiary to the side borders. This part of the garden also fronts main street and has a pedestrian wrought iron gate. The gardens continue through the yew topiary to a further gravelled garden with timber summerhouse, greenhouse and established perennial borders. This area of garden overlooks the fields to the rear and has access into the games room.

VIEWING ESSENTIAL

The property offers deceptively large and flexible living space and would make a superb family home or even a work from home space using the internal study or the detached games room.
