This semi-detached house has been absolutely transformed by the owners to create a spacious, versatile and dynamic home that really suits today's style of living. There's quality and attractive features throughout including underfloor heating to the ground floor, a log burner in the living room, oak flooring, a contemporary bathroom & shower and the icing on the cake - a superb 21'+ open-plan day kitchen that opens to the lovely rear garden. Wood Meads is a desirable cul-de-sac positioned on the northern edge of the town where it borders a section of Epping Forest. Epping's vibrant High street, with its range of cafes, shops, restaurants and other amenities is a short walk away across the open grounds of the Memorial Green.
