About the area

Leysdown-on-Sea is a coastal village on the eastern side of the Isle of Sheppey, with a traditional seaside atmosphere and access to beaches and the coast. The immediate area around is relatively quiet and residential with Leysdown itself having a range of local shops, cafés, takeaways, pubs and everyday amenities. There are also several holiday parks and leisure facilities around Leysdown, reflecting its established seaside and holiday-home market. The coastal setting can make the area attractive to people looking for a quieter lifestyle, a holiday property or a second home.
