Property Introduction

For keen and enthusiastic gardeners, this property is an absolute delight. This is a garden with a cottage, rather than a cottage with a garden - the grounds are the true heart of this wonderful home. The extensive gardens surround the cottage and provide a stunning outdoor sanctuary, featuring a superb variety of mature trees, established shrubs, colourful planting, and hidden areas to explore and enjoy throughout the seasons. A charming stream runs through the gardens, complete with a delightful bridge, creating a tranquil and picturesque environment that adds to the unique character and appeal of this special property.

The cottage itself offers four bedrooms and would benefit from some modernisation, providing an exciting opportunity for a buyer to create a home perfectly suited to their own style and requirements. The property also benefits from a detached garage, summer house, workshop, garden storage, and ample parking.

Perfect for those who appreciate gardening, nature, privacy, and outdoor living, this is a rare opportunity to own a truly special property where the gardens take centre stage. A must-view for anyone looking for peace, tranquility, and the chance to create their dream country retreat.

Location

The property is positioned just outside Constantine. This lovely, self-contained village boasts excellent amenities that include two well stocked shops, one famous for its collection of malt whiskies, a primary school with an attached pre-school and a pre-school and forest school. There is also a doctors surgery, community and arts centre, sports club and church. There are lovely walks close by in Constantine Woods, Port Navas and the Helford River. The nearest beach is an approximate ten minute drive away.
