White House, Port Lane, Brimscombe, GL5 2QJ

£750,000

Fancy living in the White House? This charming attached four-bedroom Grade II Listed home, overlooking the River Frome, offers an irresistible blend of elegance, history and comfort. Arranged over 3 characterful floors, the property welcomes you with a generous entrance hallway leading to a cosy sitting room/study/snug, a flexible adaptable space for work, hobbies or relaxation. A 21ft-kitchen–dining/family room forms the heart of the home, ideal for gatherings and everyday living. The main sitting room is located on the first floor with wood burning stove and a double aspect. The large master bedroom enjoys its own en suite/wet room, complemented by three further bedrooms and a well appointed family bathroom featuring a roll-top bath, along with two additional WCs thoughtfully positioned on different levels within the house. Practicality is well covered with a separate utility room, and the outside space is equally appealing: a large garden, mostly laid to lawn and includes a delightful summer house to the far end. A former stable now serves as a highly useful outbuilding, adding to the home's versatility. With its period charm, generous proportions and idyllic setting, this is a rare opportunity to enjoy a truly distinctive riverside lifestyle.

Amenities

Brimscombe, situated along the A419 London Road, was originally a shipping port village that thrived on wealth. The old port currently has plans for regeneration to include housing, leisure and retail units. The Stroud District Council is restoring a 6.7-mile stretch of the Cotswold Canals, promising economic, heritage, leisure, and conservation benefits. The village features a primary school, proximity to Thomas Keble secondary school, and various educational institutions. Brimscombe offers a village shop, mobile post office, Fish & Chip shop, hair salon, and antiques shop. Excellent transport links via A419 and railway stations connect to Stroud, M5, Cirencester, and London Paddington.

Directions

The property is approximately 2 miles out of the centre of Stroud. From our office by the clock tower proceed along the London Road, the A419 and proceed through Thrupp. Turn right just past Brimscombe Lane onto brimscombe Hill and turn left into Port Lane. Proceed along the road bearing right and continue over the bridge and park in the Brimscombe Mill car park. As you look over the river Frome, you will see the White House peeping through the trees.

These particulars are intended to give a fair and reliable description of the property but no responsibility for any inaccuracy or error can be accepted and do not constitute an offer or contract. We have not tested any services or appliances (including central heating if fitted) referred to in these particulars and the purchasers are advised to satisfy themselves as to the working order and condition. If a property is unoccupied at any time there may be reconnection charges for any switched off/disconnected or drained services or appliances - All measurements are approximate. If you are thinking of selling your home or just curious to discover the value of your property, Hunters would be pleased to provide free, no obligation sales and marketing advice. Even if your home is outside the area covered by our local offices we can arrange a Market Appraisal through our national network of Hunters estate agents.

Agents Notes

Please note that the property has a flying freehold where the cellar for the adjoining property runs under the White House. Also, there are rights of way for the adjoining neighbours to access their garden. With regard to the outbuilding, the right is owned by the sellers and access through the right hand door, the smaller proportion to the left is owned by a neighbour. The property has undergone many alterations since the owners took ownership around 16 years ago. The house is Grade II Listed and we have been told the property dates back to the early 18th century in part.
