Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 3

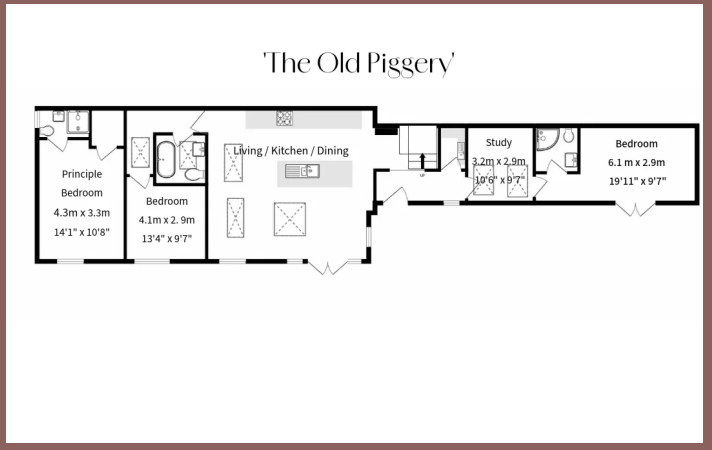

Receptions: 2

Located at Lavender Farm, Lower Rowling, The Old Piggery is a superbly restored detached former farm building, blending character features with stylish contemporary living. Beautifully presented throughout, the property showcases many original details, including stunning exposed brickwork that reflects its agricultural heritage.

Offering three well-proportioned bedrooms, and three bathrooms the layout is ideal for guests, with bedrooms thoughtfully positioned at either end of the home to provide excellent privacy and separation.

At the heart of the property is an exceptional open-plan kitchen, dining and living space, featuring vaulted ceilings and dual-aspect windows that flood the room with natural light, creating a wonderful sense of space. A separate study/snug provides additional flexibility, ideal for home working, a cosy retreat or occasional guest accommodation. The Old Piggery is a unique home combining period charm, in a tranquil rural setting.
