Property Details

This handsome five bedroom, two bathroom Victorian terraced house is arranged over three natural floors and combines a wealth of period charm with generous, versatile accommodation and exciting potential. The pretty façade features a square bay framed by established wisteria and a smart black front door. Inside, the impressive double reception room is rich in original character, with beautiful cornicing, ceiling roses, feature fireplaces, exposed floorboards and sash windows, while French doors open onto the garden. The good-sized kitchen also benefits from a double-aspect layout and direct access to the garden, which offers privacy, established greenery, decking and a useful shed. Upstairs, the spacious bedrooms retain further period features, including sash windows, fireplaces and cornicing. The principal bedroom benefits from built-in wardrobes and access to a private decked roof terrace, while two bathrooms include a family bathroom with bath and rainfall shower. A useful cellar provides additional storage.
