Oxberry Avenue is a quiet residential street located in a desirable group of roads that run just off the Fulham Road. The attraction of the area is the proximity to restaurants, cafe's and shops of Fulham Road and Parsons Green which are only a short walk away. The area is a preferred location with people seeking larger houses as well as good sized flats in a convenient area to access transport and local amenities and as such, is always in high demand. The closest underground station is Putney Bridge (District Line, Zone 2) which is within walking distance and there are buses running towards Hammersmith, Chelsea and central London from Fulham Palace Road and Fulham Road.
