SELLER INSIGHT

“Fowey House has been our home for the past 26 years. From the moment we found it, it was the location and the feeling it gave us that truly stood out. We had been living abroad and searching for quite some time, but this house immediately felt right. The look of it, combined with its setting, simply ticked all the boxes - and it has been perfect for us ever since.”

“During our time here, we have thoughtfully modernised the house to suit our tastes. The kitchen and bathrooms have been renovated, and we’ve put a great deal of care into the back garden, which is now beautifully terraced with a lovely water feature. We also transformed the smaller reception room downstairs into a cosy snug. We haven’t changed too much structurally, as we’ve always loved the natural flow of the house, it’s been very well designed.”

“My favourite spaces are the kitchen and the snug, as that’s where we spend most of our time. I also really enjoy my craft room, tucked away in one of the bedrooms, and upstairs there are stunning views.”

“The garden is a real highlight. At the front, we have a deck where we’re treated to the most beautiful sunsets. It’s a spot we use often, especially in the evenings, enjoying a quiet drink and taking in the view - it’s a very special place to unwind.”

“The house is ideal for entertaining. The layout flows beautifully, with glass doors between the rooms that create an open yet connected feel. Although much of our family lives abroad, we’ve loved hosting gatherings here, from relaxed get-togethers to the occasional party, often spilling out into the garden.”

“The community is another thing we truly cherish. It’s a friendly, welcoming and vibrant village, and we feel lucky to be part of it. I’ve been quite involved locally, and it’s one of the main reasons we’re choosing to stay in the area as we downsize. It’s also a very convenient location, with everything close at hand, including some fantastic local pubs.”

“What I will miss most is the sense of space and the generous storage throughout the house, there’s a place for everything in every room. That said, we’re not moving far, so it doesn’t feel like we’re leaving it all behind. We just hope the next family who comes here will love Fowey House as much as we have.”*
