Description

Available 9th of January 2026

A beautifully presented four-bedroom family home arranged over three floors, offering generous living accommodation and a high-quality finish throughout.

The ground floor comprises two versatile reception rooms, including a bright front reception room and an impressive open-plan kitchen, dining and family space to the rear. The contemporary kitchen is thoughtfully designed with high-specification fittings and finishes, and provides direct access to the private rear garden, creating the perfect setting for both entertaining and everyday family living.

The upper floors provide four well-proportioned bedrooms and two modern bathrooms, offering flexible accommodation ideal for families, guests, or those requiring space for home working.

Finished to an excellent standard throughout, the property successfully combines attractive period features with stylish contemporary improvements, creating a warm, practical and inviting home.

Offered unfurnished.

Location

Situated on the sought-after Kempe Road, the property enjoys a highly desirable position in the heart of Kensal Rise, with excellent transport links nearby. Kensal Rise Overground and Kensal Green Station (Bakerloo Line and Overground) are both within easy reach, providing convenient access to Central London and beyond. A number of local bus routes further enhance connectivity across the capital.

The area is renowned for its strong sense of community and vibrant local atmosphere, with an excellent selection of independent cafés, restaurants, boutiques and everyday amenities close by. The popular amenities of Chamberlayne Road and the open green spaces of Queen's Park are both within walking distance, offering an attractive balance of urban convenience and outdoor leisure.

The property is also particularly well placed for families, benefitting from access to a number of highly regarded local schools, making it an appealing choice for long-term family living.
