INSIDE

Stepping into Forest Gardens, you're greeted by an inviting entrance hall that branches into bright, beautifully maintained spaces, each thoughtfully arranged to suit flexible living. The well-presented dining room offers generous proportions and doubles perfectly as a fourth bedroom, while a spacious ground-floor bedroom with fitted storage provides further versatility. A modern WC sits conveniently nearby, and the cosy lounge, centred around a striking wood-burning stove—creates an irresistibly warm and atmospheric heart to the home. The bespoke kitchen continues the theme of quality, fitted with elegant fillet units and high-end appliances that bring together style and functionality with ease.

Upstairs, the expansive master bedroom impresses with bespoke fitted storage and dual-width windows framing views across the garden, creating a serene and light-filled retreat. A beautifully finished four-piece bathroom completes this level, offering modern luxury through its contemporary suite, inviting tub, and separate shower. Every space has been carefully curated to deliver comfort, charm, and everyday practicality.

OUTSIDE

The generous rear garden at 5 Forest Gardens is a standout feature, largely laid to lawn and complemented by a raised entertainment area at the far end, ideal for dining, relaxing, and hosting in complete privacy. This outdoor haven is matched by the property's substantial outbuilding: a large garage cleverly split to provide excellent storage on one side and a fully equipped office space on the other, complete with lighting and internet connectivity, making it perfect for homeworking or creative pursuits.

To the front, the wide driveway offers ample off-road parking for multiple vehicles, enhancing both convenience and kerb appeal. With its flexible external spaces and peaceful village setting, the outside of this home effortlessly alongside the interior to offer a balanced and highly desirable lifestyle.
