Welcome to Simple Life's Ribblesdale Place. Located less than a mile away from Accrington town centre and 6 miles away from Blackburn city centre, Ribblesdale Place offers a range of beautiful new build homes exclusively to rent.

Built to help families and working professionals thrive, this development benefits from great transport links, with Accrington train station 1 mile away and the M65 being just a 6 minute drive away, providing great access to both North and South of the area.

If living close to a lively and convenient area is important to you, then this development would be an ideal place to call home. Less than a mile away, Accrington town centre contributes a large range of high street shopping centres, restaurants and bars, as well as supermarkets for all essentials.
