The biggest benefit of this Chain Free property is the location! Boasting a South Facing Private Garden and sitting right between St Marks Road & Stapleton Road means it brings immediate access to all amenities and conveniently positioned for excellent transport links, with the local train station just moments away. This period terrace is a blank canvas for the new owner in great condition bringing wood flooring, fireplaces, good heating and electrics and double glazing. The simple addition of furniture and colour would make it cosy. Two reception rooms beside the kitchen and storage space on the ground floor. The main bedroom on the first floor is huge and spans the width of the house with storage, alongside another double bedroom with storage and generous bathroom. Please make contact to have a look inside.
