Bradford Peverell is a charming rural village in Dorset, set within rolling countryside just a few miles northwest of the county town of Dorchester. The village is steeped in history, with its parish church of St Mary dating back to Norman times, and it is surrounded by scenic farmland and gentle hills, making it popular with walkers and nature lovers. Despite its peaceful setting, Bradford Peverell benefits from being close to Dorchester, which offers a wide range of amenities including shops, schools, healthcare, restaurants, and cultural attractions such as the Dorset Museum and the Roman Town House. Nearby villages like Frampton, Charminster, and Stratton add to the area's character, each with traditional pubs, historic buildings, and a strong sense of community. Further afield, market towns such as Bridport and Weymouth provide access to the Jurassic Coast, sandy beaches, and vibrant local markets, giving residents of Bradford Peverell the best of both tranquil village life and convenient access to Dorset's wider amenities.

A private driveway leads up to the elevated home, providing a convenient space for parking multiple vehicles. The front garden features a wooden fence surrounding an area of lawn, with steps leading up to the rear of the property. Entry to the property is gained via a charming stable door which opens directly into a hallway with stairs ascending to the first floor. The hallway leads into a practical utility area, complete with units and worksurface over providing dedicated space for appliances and integrated sink. Also situated downstairs is a modern WC with a basin and vanity storage. The primary bedroom on this level is very spacious, benefiting from a built-in wardrobe that spans the length of the room. Completing the ground level is a useful understairs cupboard and bedroom four, which offers a versatile space with built-in shelving that is currently used as a study or hobby room.

Stairs rise to the first floor to provide access to the landing, which connects the upstairs bedrooms, family bathroom, and kitchen. The second bedroom is a comfortable double and serves as a highly versatile space, currently utilised as a dining room to take full advantage of the lovely elevated views. The third bedroom is also a double room, complete with a built-in wardrobe. Serving the first floor is the family bathroom, which is comprised of a panel-enclosed bath with a shower attachment over, a w/c and a basin.

Further access is given to the kitchen, where the room benefits from a range of wall and base-level units with worksurfaces over, housing built-in appliances including a one-and-a-half bowl sink with a drainer, a four-ring electric hob, and a double oven. A walk-in larder serves the space and has room for smaller appliances. From the kitchen, access is provided to the dual-aspect living room, which boasts a cosy open fireplace and beautiful countryside views. A door from the kitchen also provides access to a side walk way that leads to a set of stairs that takes you up to the rear garden. This outdoor space is a lawned area with mature hedging and offers beautiful rolling views of the surrounding countryside.
