Situation

Summerhill Road is within walking distance to Launceston town centre and easy access to primary school, Launceston College and Leisure Centre. Launceston offers a full range of social, commercial and shopping facilities together with the A30 dual carriageway spine road providing a better balance of travel distance to all parts of Cornwall to the west and into Devon to the east linking with the M5 motorway at the City of Exeter which also has mainline railway station and international airport.

In all directions from Launceston there is scenery of outstanding natural beauty. To the north is rugged coastline famed for popular family surfing beaches and picturesque former fishing villages, the open expanses of Bodmin Moor are to the west ideal for walking and riding, Dartmoor National Park is to the east and running southwards to Plymouth Sound with all its yachting facilities on the south coast are the hidden secrets of the Tamar Valley steeped in 18th Century mining history and renowned for Salmon fishing.

An attractive and spacious detached family home offering generous and well-proportioned accommodation arranged over three floors, perfectly suited to modern family living. The property provides bright, well-balanced interiors designed for both everyday comfort and entertaining, complemented by a garage, a paved driveway with ample off-road parking for several vehicles, and an enclosed, low-maintenance rear garden featuring both patio and decked seating areas, ideal for outdoor dining and relaxation. Conveniently located within easy walking distance of a range of local amenities, well-regarded schools and excellent transport links, this is a superb home in a highly accessible setting.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance lobby on the first floor, providing access to the garage, a bedroom and a shower room. The second floor offers three further well-proportioned bedrooms together with a bathroom. On the ground floor, an entrance hallway leads to a useful storage cupboard and an impressive open-plan living space, creating a bright and versatile hub of the home, ideal for both relaxing and entertaining.
