Located on the edge of the older part of the village, the original structure of Whitehall Cottage is more than 300 years old and has retained all its charm while offering stylish and comfortable accommodation for modern living.

The ground floor comprises a country style kitchen dining room with painted beams, granite work surfaces, range cooker and bespoke corner pantry cupboard. Two sets of doors connect the kitchen with the gardens for convenient entertaining. The spacious sitting room with wood burning stove has floor to ceiling windows and French doors open to the decked verandah that sits within the inner courtyard. There is also a dining room, utility room and a rear lobby with WC.

There are 4 bedrooms on the first floor, two of which are en-suite and enjoy far-reaching rural views to the south west. The other two bedrooms, one of which is currently used as a study, share a family bathroom.

Thoughtfully converted, the detached barn has reverse level accommodation and is perfect for family and friends. The open plan kitchen dining living room on the first floor has a vaulted ceiling with numerous roof lights and the cathedral window with Juliet balcony enjoys spectacular uninterrupted views towards Bolberry Down. There are two bedrooms and two shower rooms on the ground floor along with a utility room. Attached to the barn is a useful store.

The gardens are a real feature of Whitehall Cottage and extensive for a property in the heart of the village. Beautifully planted with shrub and flower borders, there are numerous areas to sit and enjoy the sun all day as well as gently sloping lawns with established trees.

There is ample driveway parking and a timber studio.
