Price Guide

Hainault Avenue

This delightful first floor flat welcomes you with a landing that leads through to a bay fronted lounge complete with a feature log burner, creating a cosy and characterful living space. The kitchen is generously sized and well suited for everyday use, while the double bedroom benefits from a feature fireplace and built-in storage. A well presented three piece bathroom completes the main accommodation. Stairs lead up to a sizeable loft room offering plentiful eaves storage, ideal for use as a hobby space, office or occasional room. Externally, the property enjoys a west facing garden with decking and a versatile log cabin, perfect for entertaining or working from home. Further benefits include double glazing and gas central heating.

Located on Hainault Avenue in Westcliff-on-Sea, the property falls within catchment of The Westborough School and Chase High School, whilst also being close to excellent grammar schools. Amenities, shops, eateries and parks are all nearby, along with bus links, major road access and Southend University Hospital. Commuters benefit from proximity to both Westcliff Train Station and Prittlewell Train Station for convenient travel connections.
