A stunning new build three-bedroom, three-storey end-of-terrace mews house, available now and positioned within an exclusive development in the heart of Ferndown.

This beautifully designed home offers deceptively spacious accommodation arranged over three floors, combining contemporary style with energy-efficient living. The impressive open-plan kitchen/dining/living space features granite worktops, integrated appliances and double doors opening onto the private rear garden, creating a superb area for modern family life.

The property also benefits from three well-proportioned bedrooms, a stylish family bathroom, en suite to the main bedroom, ground floor cloakroom, allocated parking, air source heat pump and integrated sprinkler system.

Ideally located for Ferndown town centre and local amenities, this exceptional home offers the perfect opportunity to secure a high specification new build in a sought-after Dorset location.
