Heathside

Newbury Road, Shefford Woodlands, Hungerford, Berkshire, RG17 7AJ

Guide £550,000

A detached Grade II listed cottage that retains great character throughout with good frontage, outbuildings and a fabulous garden backing onto farmland, approaching 0.39 of an acre in total.

Description

The traditional and unspoilt accommodation includes a sitting room with an inglenook fireplace and a wood burner, a tasteful kitchen dining area with an Aga and a useful utility room with a door to outside. The bathroom is fitted in traditional white and includes a shower. On the first floor there is an open plan landing bedroom area that could be separated (subject to any consents of course), and a further double bedroom. Outside there is an in and out driveway, a range of outbuildings, gardens and an area for vegetables, chickens etc. The garden backs on to farmland and is a particular feature of the property. A viewing is strongly advised to fully appreciate the wonderful lifestyle opportunity that the property offers.

Shefford Woodlands

Shefford Woodlands is a picturesque hamlet approximately 3 miles to the north of Hungerford. St The historic market town of Hungerford has a range of local shops and is renowned as an antiques centre. It is bordered by Freemans Marsh and Portdown Common with the Kennet & Avon canal flowing through. The town has a doctors surgery, public library, two further comprehensive facilities are available at Newbury and Basingstoke which both have railway stations on a direct line to London. Road links are also good with the A339 giving access to the M4 motorway via Newbury and the M3 via Basingstoke.
