Property Introduction

A wonderful opportunity to purchase this semi-detached cottage presented to a very high standard. Offering an array of features associated with a property of this period, the cottage is being sold with the added benefit of being chain free.

Upon entering the lounge, you are greeted with a light and airy reception room with a log burner making this a delightful living space in which to relax and enjoy. A doorway leads into a generous kitchen/diner with access to the enclosed yard, whilst to the first floor there are two bedroom considered to be of generous proportions as well as a modern white bathroom suite. Throughout there is a gas fired central heating system along with uPVC double glazed windows.

Overall this is a wonderful cottage ideal for those buyers seeking to buy a well presented home yet within close proximity to any local shops and amenities that Penryn has to offer.

Location

Penryn is a popular university town offering local primary and secondary schools which enjoy good reputations along with a railway link to Truro and beyond. The town is very popular and offers a good range of local shops and located on the river Fal along with an array of cobbled streets. Penryn in recent years has seen a growth in new businesses which include cafes, restaurants and galleries while Falmouth itself is home to the National Maritime Museum and has three popular beaches being Castle, Gyllyngvase and Swanpool these being ideal for those keen on watersports such as paddle boarding and kayaking.

The cathedral city of Truro is approximately eight miles distance being the main centre in Cornwall for business and commerce and is also home to the Hall for Cornwall located in the piazza. For those who are keen on walking, there is a abundance of countryside walks nearby which also takes in the delightful villages of Mylor and Flushing.
