Set along one of Burnham's most sought-after turnings, on the fringes of the town yet within easy walking distance of a wide range of local amenities — including the railway station, supermarket, doctor's surgery, post office, picturesque marina and country park — is this charming 1930s semi-detached home. Offering deceptively spacious accommodation throughout, the property presents an excellent opportunity to further enhance or extend (subject to planning permission), making it ideal for growing families or those seeking a home with potential.

Nestled within a quiet cul-de-sac, the property's welcoming ground floor comprises an inviting entrance hall leading to a bright dual-aspect living/dining room, a kitchen, and a delightful vaulted conservatory overlooking the rear garden. To the first floor are three generously proportioned bedrooms and a modern refitted family bathroom.

Externally, the home enjoys a substantial rear garden, while the low-maintenance frontage provides extensive off-road parking and convenient side access.

Early viewing is strongly advised to avoid disappointment. Energy Rating D.

BURNHAM-ON-CROUCH:

Burnham-on-Crouch is a picturesque town on the banks of the River Crouch, a renown yachting and sailing centre hosting the famous 'Burnham Week' at the end of August. The town has a population of a little over 9,500 and is the principal settlement in the Dengie peninsula. Consequently it boasts many amenities that are uncommon in small towns including two primary schools and an academy secondary school, independent cinema, Burnham yacht harbour/marina, several boatyards, three yacht clubs (including the Royal Corinthian & Royal Burnham), two supermarkets and numerous individual shops, public houses and restaurants. There is a railway station on the Southminster branch line with direct commuter trains into London Liverpool Street (at peak times). The Burnham-on-Crouch Golf Club, founded in 1923, is situated in Creeksea on the outskirts of Burnham and enjoys breathtaking views over the Crouch Valley and River Crouch.
