Set behind an attractive frontage, the property immediately creates an excellent first impression, with upgraded external rendering and attractive complimenting windows, enhancing its kerb appeal whilst giving the exterior instant curb appeal.

Internally, the accommodation is both spacious and versatile, arranged over two floors and lending itself perfectly to a wide variety of buyers including families, downsizers looking to future proof, or purchasers seeking flexible living space to suit changing needs over time.

The property is accessed via the entrance hallway, which gives an immediate sense of space and provides access through the ground floor and up to the first floor accommodation.

The lounge is an especially charming room and undoubtedly one of the standout spaces within the home. Generous in size and full of character, it features a striking inglenook style fireplace as its focal point, while the exposed ceiling beams add warmth and a delightful cottage style feel, creating a room that feels cosy but spacious.

In addition to the lounge, there is a separate dining room, offering further reception space for family use or even a home office, if required. Positioned alongside the dining kitchen, this layout also presents an exciting opportunity for those wishing to reconfigure the space into a more contemporary open-plan living dining kitchen, subject to any necessary approvals.

The dining kitchen itself is a well proportioned and practical family space, offering ample room for everyday dining and enjoying pleasant views over the garden. It sits conveniently adjacent to the former attached garage, which has been adapted to provide a useful utility area, with direct internal access from the house, adding excellent practicality for day-to-day living.

The ground floor also benefits from a modernised family bathroom, stylishly updated to provide a contemporary and spacious suite, ideal for buyers wanting comfort and convenience .

Further enhancing the versatility of the layout is a ground floor bedroom, which could equally serve as an additional sitting room, guest room, or study depending on requirements. This room enjoys UPVC double glazed French doors, opening directly onto the rear garden, making it particularly attractive for those seeking flexible accommodation over two floors.

To the first floor, there are two further bedrooms, both of good proportions and both benefitting from built in wardrobes, together with a useful first floor washroom, adding further practicality and convenience.

Externally, the gardens are a real highlight of the property and undoubtedly one of its most special features.

Occupying an exceptional plot, the home is surrounded by beautifully maintained wraparound gardens, which have clearly been lovingly cared for and curated over many years. The rear garden in particular offers a wonderful degree of privacy and space, creating a peaceful outdoor setting ideal for both keen gardeners and those who simply enjoy being outside.

There are generous lawned areas, well-stocked planted borders, mature shrubs and established greenery, all of which combine to create a wonderfully colourful and established setting throughout the seasons. A charming feature pond adds further character and tranquillity, while the overall size and layout of the grounds offer excellent space for outdoor seating, entertaining, or family enjoyment.

The plot also presents exciting future potential, with scope for further extension or development to the side or rear, subject to the relevant permissions, making this a home that can not only be enjoyed immediately, but one that could also evolve with a buyer's needs over time.

Situated within a sought after area the property enjoys a highly convenient and well-established location, well placed for a range of everyday amenities. Canalside walks are close by, together with Congleton Park and the town centre, which offers a wide range of shops, cafés and services. The location is also ideal for commuters, with excellent access to Macclesfield, Leek, and surrounding areas.

A rare opportunity to acquire a much loved detached home with character, flexibility, beautiful gardens and exceptional future potential. An early viewing is strongly recommended.
