St. Leonards Court St. Leonards Avenue
Blandford Forum

Property Description

History

Blandford Forum has a rich heritage dating back to Saxon times. Long established as an important market town—reflected in the name “Forum,” meaning market. Blandford was largely destroyed by a devastating fire in 1731, subsequently rebuilt in the Georgian period, giving its unique and elegant architectural character that is so distinctive today. The area takes its name from St Leonard’s Chapel, once part of the 13th-century St Leonard’s Hospital.

Location

St Leonards Court is a popular residential area, ideally situated within a 5-minute walk to the town centre and just 3 minutes from the nearest supermarket.

The location provides excellent road connections to Poole, Salisbury, Dorchester, and onward links to Southampton and London.

Mainline rail services are accessible via Poole Station, offering direct trains to London, Southampton, and Weymouth, making this an excellent choice for commuters and travellers alike.
