The Property

Upon entering the bungalow, there is a hallway which serves all principal rooms. With a lovely warm feel of character throughout, one will find a cosy sitting room with feature wood burner and this room leads out via French doors into an orangery with pitched warm roof, including two Velux windows and a delightful aspect overlooking the secluded rear garden. French doors again lead out to a decked entertaining area. There is a well fitted kitchen with range of appliances.

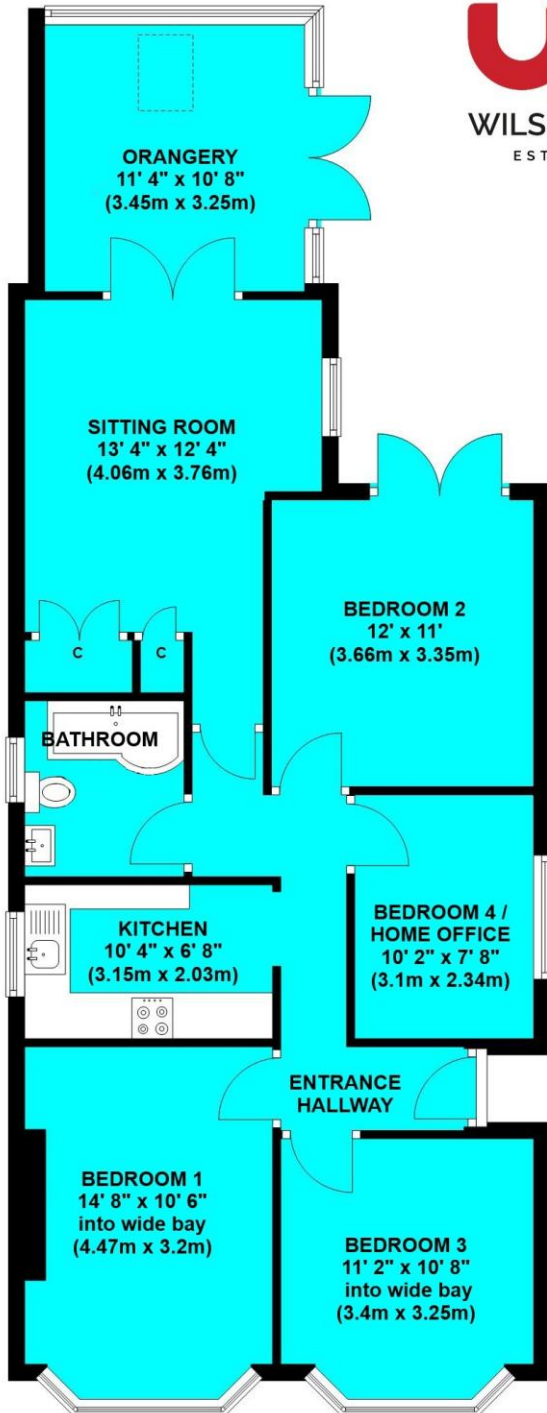

Bedroom 1 is of a good size having been the original living room, with a wide bay window including plantation shutters overlooking the front garden. The current owners use bedroom 2 as the main bedroom and this has the benefit of French doors leading out to the decked area. Bedroom 3 again has a wide bay window including professionally installed shutter blinds. Bedroom 4 can be used as a home office if needed. To complete the picture, there is a well-appointed bathroom.

To the front of the property there is an excellent block paved driveway providing parking for several cars and this area is bordered by an extremely tidy conifer hedge, shared with next door. A pathway alongside the property leads to the secluded private rear garden, which has a decked entertaining area from where two steps lead down to a resin area, again suitable for table and chairs etc. The garden is well screened by mature hedgerow and features a glazed summerhouse with light and power measuring 11' 4" x 9' 6". Further bespoke timber garden store alongside the property with additional bin storage area.
