Property Introduction

Enjoying a rural outlook to the front, this detached non-estate bungalow, which is offered for sale with no onward chain, would now benefit from some updating and modernisation.

Benefiting from two double bedrooms, there is a generous dual aspect lounge with feature fireplace, fitted kitchen/diner and in addition to the bathroom there is a second WC. To the rear is a well proportioned conservatory which overlooks the rear garden, the bungalow is double glazed and heating is provided by an oil fired boiler. 'Tolbarn' occupies a good sized plot which is mainly lawned and interspersed with mature shrubs.

There is ample parking to the side for three to four vehicles, a large double garage and subject to the usual consents, there is scope to extend the bungalow. In summary, a property with a great deal of scope, viewing our interactive virtual tour prior to arranging a closer inspection is strongly recommended.

Location

Tucked away from passing traffic in a no through road location, there is a convenience store and hairdressers within a short walk and the major town of Redruth is within one mile. Here there are a range of national and local shopping outlets, a mainline railway station which connects with London Paddington and the north of England and access to the A30 trunk road is within a similar distance.

Major out of town outlets will be found at Pool, the county town of Truro will be found within ten miles and Falmouth, which is Cornwall's university town on the south coast, is within twelve miles. Portreath on the north coast, which is noted for its sandy beach and active harbour, is within five miles.
