A wonderful opportunity to acquire a characterful period cottage in the sought-after village setting of Radwell...

A charming and beautifully presented Grade II Listed, stone-built thatched cottage, enjoying a delightful position overlooking a green space to the front. Full of character and period charm, Greenway Cottage offers well-presented accommodation arranged over two floors.

The property is approached via an attractive wrap-around front garden, with mature shrubs, established planting and rose bushes creating a colourful and welcoming setting.

The ground floor features a cosy sitting room with an electric fire and a useful storage cupboard, currently utilised as a utility cupboard, together with a separate dining room with wooden beams and a downstairs bathroom with electric underfloor heating, which continues through to the kitchen.

Upstairs are two double bedrooms, arranged in a traditional cottage layout, with access to the second bedroom through the first.

The gardens are a particular feature, with the rear garden divided into two distinct areas, mostly laid to lawn and well landscaped.

Please note: that the neighbouring property has a right of access through the garden.

The property has electric heating throughout and is presented to an excellent standard.
