Storage space

Part of the original garage has been retained with the up-and-over door still in place, creating an ideal space for secure additional storage. If preferred, it could easily be reinstated as a full garage by removing the stud wall.

Outside

To the front, a generous brickweave driveway provides off-road parking for multiple vehicles and leads to the retained garage storage area, while a pathway offers gated access to the rear. The frontage is attractively bordered with a selection of mature shrubs.

The enclosed south-facing rear garden has been thoughtfully landscaped for low-maintenance enjoyment, featuring an artificial lawn, patio seating area, raised decked terrace, decorative shingle and timber-edged borders. Further benefits include an outside tap, external lighting, power sockets, a timber storage shed, and panel fencing enclosing the garden.
