A well-presented 4-bedroom student house is available from August 2027, offering comfortable and practical accommodation ideal for a group of students looking for a convenient home for the next academic year.

The property offers a welcoming lounge, providing a great communal space for relaxing and socialising, along with a spacious kitchen/dining room that is well suited to shared meals and group living. There is also a separate prep kitchen, providing additional space for food preparation and storage.

The property further benefits from a bathroom and a private courtyard garden, offering an outdoor space to enjoy during the warmer months.

Additional benefits include residents' parking, internet access, and the property will be refreshed over the summer in preparation for the new
