A surprisingly spacious and well laid out extended three bedroomed bungalow which has been owned by the same family since new. Requiring full modernisation and offered to the market with no onward chain the property has a very flexible layout and benefits from three bedrooms, two well proportioned reception rooms as well as a kitchen, recently fitted wet room/bathroom and modern boiler (18 months old). Situated on this established development forming Model Farm and surrounded by similar properties.

Note that the bungalow does back onto the railway lines. However only by viewing the property one can see that this provides very little disturbance to the property.

LOCATION

The property is located on Chestnut Avenue and adjacent to the railway line which skirts the rear garden.

Situated on the highly regarded and established Model Farm Estate the property has convenient access to the local amenities in the centre of this residential development. Access is gained to Beverley town centre via Norwood.
