What the owner says.....

"My husband and I fell in love with April Cottage the first time we viewed it and we have spent 10 very happy years living here.

Elevated above the Tonbridge Road, April Cottage has been a convenient location for my husband who works at the Maidstone hospital. He either walks to work or takes the car which is ordinarily parked to the rear of our home. It has been useful having the parking since he is able to safely charge his car. April Cottage is also convenient for walking to the town centre. Alternatively, there is a bus that stops just across the road. A number of rated and popular primary and secondary schools are within walking distance.

April Cottage has been a safe and happy environment for us to live in. We have been fortunate to have had great neighbours always happy for a chat and to accept deliveries on our behalf. Last, but not least, our local pub the Walnut Tree is great for a pint!

We shall be sad to leave April Cottage, but my husband and I are ready for a new adventure when he retires this year."
