PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Smart Millerson Estate Agents are delighted to present this appealing two-bedroom property, ideally situated in the highly regarded and popular village of Polgooth. Offering well-proportioned accommodation, a generous private garden and excellent potential, this property is an ideal opportunity for first-time buyers, small families and investors alike.

The accommodation comprises two well-sized bedrooms, a comfortable and welcoming living area, a practical kitchen and a family bathroom. The property provides a versatile layout that would make a comfortable home while also offering scope for buyers to add their own personal touch and further enhance the property over time.

One of the property's standout features is the substantial private rear garden. Offering an excellent outdoor space for children to play, entertaining family and friends, gardening or simply relaxing.

The home is offered to the market with no onward chain and vacant possession on completion. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the location, layout, and potential this property has to offer.

LOCATION

Polgooth is small village in mid Cornwall and two miles from St Austell. Its neighbouring well renowned villages of Trelowth and Sticker are within walking distance. Polgooth itself offers many amenities to meet your everyday needs, such as a bus stop, local convenience store, sub-post office as well as a public house and restaurant. Polgooth is also well located for those looking to have access to the main town of St Austell or into Cornwall's Capitol City, Truro. St Austell offers a good array of shops, schooling and social facilities, a mainline train station and bus station. Within a short drive lies the world renowned Eden Project, the famous Lost Gardens of Heligan, and the picturesque 'port' of Charlestown known for its appearance in numerous films and television dramas. Further afield there are many sandy beaches and coves, beautiful walks throughout the Roseland Peninsula, an area of outstanding natural beauty, and the surfing beaches of the north coast.

Title register restrictions (CL140512):

- The property must be used as a single private home only and cannot be used for business purposes.
- The owner is responsible for maintaining specific boundary fences and walls, including a concrete block wall on the Northern and Western sides.
- The owner must pay a fair share of the costs for maintaining shared facilities like drains, sewers, paths, and roads.
- Because the property was previously owned by a housing association, there are legal 'restrictions' on the title. These mean that the owner cannot sell or transfer the property without formal consent from the Housing Corporation or the Secretary of State, unless the sale meets specific legal exceptions.
- The current mortgage lender must also provide written consent before any sale or new mortgage is registered.
- Units 3 and 7 are subject to the 'Preserved Right to Buy,' meaning the current tenants may have a legal right to purchase those specific homes.
