Property Introduction

This most spacious and well presented family home offers accommodation arranged over three floors. At lower ground floor level there is a handy utility room and the family bathroom which boasts underfloor heating. On the ground floor there is a cosy living room with feature exposed granite wall and the stunning kitchen/diner which really is the 'hub' of this lovely home. Upstairs one will find three double bedrooms with one bedroom gaining views towards Mount's Bay.

To the rear of the house there is a most attractive enclosed courtyard garden which is larger than average in this location and enjoys a westerly aspect. MUST BE SEEN!

Location

Located in a residential area convenient for all of the town's local amenities, train and bus station. Penzance is well known for being the most Westerly major town in Cornwall situated in the shelter of Mount's Bay the town has lots to offer and places of interest to visit including the sub-tropical Morrab Gardens which has a large collection of trees that cannot be grown outside anywhere else in the UK.

Also of interest is the promenade and the open air art deco Jubilee Bathing Pool. There are a wide range of shops and restaurants to enjoy, open throughout the year. Penzance has a mainline railway and a passenger ferry to the Isles of Scilly.
