Heather Cottage sits within the quaint Village of Aislaby, conveniently located being just a very short drive in to Whitby. This cottage would make an ideal investment property or first time purchase.

A super spacious lounge with open fire, it has a lovely aspect and leads on to what currently serves as the functional kitchen/diner.

To the first floor there are two bedrooms both with storage and a large house bathroom with corner bath and shower over.

Currently heated via electric night storage heaters.

There is an allocated parking space to the rear of the cottage.

Tenure: Freehold
