We’ve absolutely loved living at No. 17 for the past 12 years. The high ceilings and those gorgeous exposed fireplaces give the downstairs rooms so much character and warmth—it’s a house that feels both stylish and welcoming. Light floods in, and the layout just makes everyday life feel easy and enjoyable.

What really makes it special, though, is where it sits. Being slightly elevated above the street gives it a lovely sense of privacy and calm, and the whole area has a small village vibe we’ve come to cherish. Woodland is just around the corner, and we’ve spent countless hours exploring it, along with the stunning Mayfield and Rivelin Valleys. Fulwood Village and Forge Dam are only a short walk away too —perfect for a coffee and cake before heading into the city or wandering further into the hills.
