Oake Manor Golf Club is close by, while Taunton is just 12 minutes away, providing mainline rail links and easy access to the M5.

ACCOMMODATION

Built in 2001 on the footprint of former Victorian cottages, the property blends traditional detailing with contemporary living. The entrance hall with solid oak flooring leads to a dual-aspect sitting room with inset gas fire and an adjoining insulated sunroom overlooking the garden. The modern kitchen includes integrated Neff appliances, while the separate dining room offers an ideal space for everyday use or entertaining.

Upstairs, a striking galleried landing leads to the principal bedroom suite with Juliet balcony, fitted wardrobe and stylish en-suite with vaulted ceiling and countryside views. There are two further bedrooms—one a generous double overlooking the village green—and a well-appointed family bathroom. A fully boarded, insulated loft provides excellent additional storage.

OUTSIDE

Approached via a charming feature bridge, the property offers landscaped gardens, ample parking, a garage, potting shed and drying room, all with power. A summer house and sheltered seating areas enjoy lovely rear outlooks, with the garden designed for low maintenance.
