Well presented detached bungalow in Midanbury offering two double bedrooms, conservatory, off-road parking & enclosed garden. Single-level living close to shops, schools & transport links.

Welcome to Lytham Road! A beautifully presented detached bungalow offering rare single-level living in one of Midanbury's most convenient locations. Ideal for downsizers, first-time buyers, or anyone seeking effortless, low-maintenance living without compromising on space.

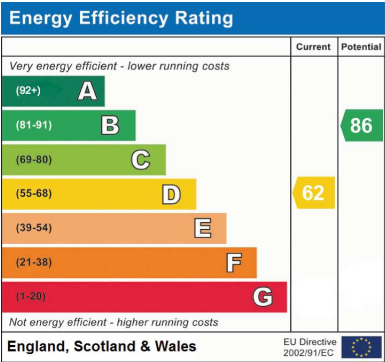

Inside, two generous double bedrooms are bathed in natural light, offering flexible use as guest space, home office, or hobby room. The contemporary bathroom features a sleek walk-in shower, while the spacious lounge provides a bright, welcoming space to relax and entertain. The modern fitted kitchen offers ample storage and worktop space, perfect for everyday cooking and family life. A standout addition is the conservatory – a fantastic bonus space to enjoy year-round, whether as a sunroom, dining area, or quiet retreat overlooking the garden.

Outside, off-road parking for one vehicle adds everyday practicality, while the enclosed rear garden offers a private, secure space ideal for relaxing, entertaining, or letting pets and children play safely.

Perfectly positioned, the property benefits from excellent local connectivity – with shops, schools, and public transport links all within easy reach, making day-to-day life simple and stress-free.

This is a genuinely practical, move-in-ready home that ticks every box: space, comfort, and location – all in one.
