Lilyhurst Cottage, originally built in approximately 1872, is a charming three/four-bedroom period cottage set within approximately half an acre of grounds. Rich in character, the property features exposed beams throughout, adding warmth and traditional appeal. The cottage benefits from a private driveway providing ample parking, together with an oak frame double open garage and a workshop with a mezzanine floor above, offering useful additional storage or workspace.

To the rear, the cottage boasts a large and pleasant garden, ideal for relaxing, gardening, or outdoor entertaining, while the front of the property enjoys attractive countryside views that enhance its peaceful rural setting.

An open oak framed porch featuring a step and a tiled floor. The cottage offers a thoughtfully designed and spacious ground floor layout. The accommodation begins with an inviting entrance hallway featuring an oak staircase leading to the first floor. The stylish kitchen includes a dining area and leads through to a practical utility room and cloakroom. From the kitchen diner, you enter a cosy snug complete with a multi-fuel burner, creating a warm and comfortable living space.

The property also features a spacious lounge with oak flooring and a multi-fuel burner, providing an ideal room for relaxing and entertaining. The lounge flows through to the bright garden room, which enjoys views over the rear garden and features double French doors opening directly onto the garden. From the garden room, a separate oak staircase leads to a double bedroom overlooking the rear garden with its own en-suite. This area offers excellent potential as guest accommodation, a private suite, or a separate living space.

Upstairs, a generous landing leads to an impressive master bedroom, which was previously two separate bedrooms and could easily be reinstated if desired. A further double bedroom enjoys attractive countryside views and benefits from its own en-suite bathroom. In addition, there is a separate family bathroom featuring a freestanding bathtub.

The property enjoys a large and pleasant rear garden, mainly a laid lawn and complemented by a variety of well-stocked planted borders and a variety of fruit trees. With attractive raised planted sleeper beds. A spacious decking area with an oak framed veranda sits directly outside the garden room, with a further raised patio area provides an ideal space for outdoor dining and entertaining.

The garden is enclosed by hedged boundaries, Towards the rear of the garden there is a garden shed and a separate potting shed. The garden is equipped with external power points and features a charming planted rockery with a water feature, as well as a dedicated wood store.

The front garden is predominantly laid to lawn, with well-maintained planted borders and a central feature bed adding visual interest. and a hedged boundary. To the left of the double-gated entrance, there is an additional area of lawn with a planted border of shrubs and trees, complemented by cleft fencing for added character.

The front of the cottage is beautifully adorned with climbing Wisteria and grape vines, adding to its charm and character.

Practical features include three external water taps, security lighting, and subtle under-lighting beneath the porch and utility roof. Further planted borders and a delightful courtyard outside the rear entrance door, while a side pathway with a gated entrance provides easy and convenient access to the front garden.

Sheriffhales is a charming village located between the market towns of Newport and Shifnal. The local primary school boasts an Outstanding Ofsted report. The surrounding area offers a variety of pubs, eateries, independent shops, and supermarkets, with Newport also featuring a Waitrose store.
