We are delighted to be presenting this pretty cottage set in the picturesque hamlet of Nanternis. Ty Coed is situated only a short walk to a network of beautiful footpaths, passing through National Trust woodland, waterfalls & meadows of wildflowers. This leads to the secluded, beaches of Cwm-Sillio & Castell Bach and directly onto the coastal path & to the cliff's & seal beach at Cwmydu & onto numerous other stunning local beaches.

Nanternis is ideally situated, approximately two & a half miles from the quaint, bustling, pretty, pastel painted tourist town of New Quay, whose harbour has recently become an international destination for dolphin and wild-life watching. This two bedroom cottage is full of character and charm, also benefitting from a beautiful rear garden and a timber Summer House.

The accommodation features a well-appointed kitchen with a range of fitted base and wall units, complemented by work surfaces and an inset Belfast sink. Additional highlights include plumbing for a washing machine, exposed ceiling beams, and a useful under-stair cupboard. The characterful living room showcases exposed beams and is centered around a Morso Squirrel multi-fuel stove, adding both charm and warmth.

On the first floor, a landing with dual-aspect windows leads to two bedrooms. The master bedroom features an arched doorway with inset stained glass panels, exposed beams, and a Velux skylight that fills the room with natural light. The second bedroom also boasts a distinctive arched doorway, along with exposed timber flooring and ceiling beams, adding to the property's charm and character

A concertina doorway allows the room to be extended, incorporating additional hall space if desired. The property also benefits from a shower room, complete with a shower cubicle, hand basin, and WC.

Ty Coed is in an elevated location and accessed via a short shared footpath, with neighbouring property Arwel, to a private gated entrance. The home enjoys both front and rear gardens. The front garden is arranged over two tiers, featuring well-stocked flower and shrub beds along with a charming seating area. To the side, there is a practical wood store, while steps lead up to a well-established, gently sloping three-tier rear garden.

The garden is a true haven, featuring a wildlife pond, multiple seating areas, a herb bed, vegetable patch, and a lawn surrounded by an abundance of mature shrubs, trees, and colourful flower beds.

At the far end of the rear garden, in an elevated position, stands an attractive timber-built summer house with a power supply. Enjoying far-reaching views over the countryside and garden, it offers versatile use as overflow accommodation, a home office, or a creative studio space.

Schedule a viewing today to fully appreciate the charm and character of this delightful cottage!
