A handsome four bedroom Mock Tudor home, combining plenty of original character with the sort of space that works brilliantly for modern family life.

The ground floor is particularly impressive, with two generous reception areas flowing through to a spacious kitchen/dining room at the rear. There is plenty of period character throughout, including leaded windows, an original-style fireplace and built-in cabinetry, while the kitchen creates a relaxed and sociable heart to the home.

Upstairs are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom, with a walk-in wardrobe to the principal bedroom. The converted top floor provides a fantastic fourth bedroom with its own en-suite and plenty of flexibility.

The large and private rear garden is a real highlight, with plenty of space for entertaining and family life. There is also a separate annexe and additional outbuilding, ideal for guests, working from home or a gym, while the generous driveway provides ample off-street parking.

Gloucester Road is a prime tree lined road in central Hampton, with easy access to the station, Waitrose, outstanding state and private schools and the open spaces of Carlisle and Bushy Park.
