A photograph of a two-story terraced house with a light-colored stone facade. The house has a white front door with a decorative glass panel and the number '34' above it. To the left of the door is a bay window with white frames and diamond-patterned glass. Above the bay window is a smaller window with a similar diamond pattern. A blue downspout runs vertically along the left side of the house. A satellite dish is mounted on the wall above the bay window. A black metal balcony railing is visible on the right side of the house.
