PROPERTY SUMMARY

Finished to a high standard throughout and built by David Wilson Homes in 2016, 8 Portsea View is an elevated four- bedroom family home situated on the highly sought- after One Eight Zero development. The ground floor offers a spacious layout, including a bright lounge with access to a south- facing terrace, a separate dining room, a study, and a modern, well- appointed kitchen with a utility room and downstairs WC. On the first floor, you will find four double bedrooms. The master bedroom features an en suite and enjoys its own south- facing balcony, accessed via stylish bi- folding doors. Externally, this beautiful home continues to impress. The rear garden offers a generous seating area with steps leading up to a lawn with mature planting. To the front, the property benefits from a driveway and access to a garage complete with power and lighting. This property is located within easy access to local motor way links , major and local shops, train stations as well as being located close to the beautiful Southdown National Park. A viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate everything that this property has to offer.

FRONT Off road parking located to the front of the garage, side access to rear garden, mature shrubs and bushes with a pathway leading to the front door.
