This three/four bedroom detached family home offers spacious accommodation and is flooded by plenty of natural light via a number of large triple glazed windows giving a most pleasing and comfortable feel throughout. The entrance hall leads through to a large dual aspect living room and also into the heart of the home. The breakfast room, kitchen and dining room offer a wealth of space for day-to-day living alongside entertaining. The area benefits from having both an open plan feel as well as being three separate spaces. The breakfast room leads through to a contemporary kitchen offering a Leisure Rangemaster double oven, wall and floor units and space for appliances. The dining room provides an excellent space for a large table and chairs with views and access onto the garden.
