Every estate has a great spot – and this is one of them. Set on a quiet private road of just three homes, overlooking a green with open countryside to the side, this beautifully positioned detached family home on Barrow Green, Pocklington offers space, privacy and an exceptional level of presentation.

Built by David Wilson Homes in 2018, the property extends to over 1,450 sq ft and has been maintained to a standard that is quite simply better than new. The ground floor offers a welcoming entrance hall, downstairs WC, a study enjoying views over the green, a generous family lounge, and a stunning kitchen/dining room that truly is the heart of the home. Upstairs, there are four genuine double bedrooms – three with built-in wardrobes – including a main bedroom with en suite, alongside a stylish family bathroom.

The south-facing rear garden has been carefully landscaped with a central lawn, patio seating areas, raised planted borders, a water feature and mature planting that provides privacy without blocking light. A rare opportunity to secure a home in one of the finest positions on the development.
