A rare opportunity to enjoy generous family living in a beautiful rural setting, The Sidings is a substantial four-bedroom detached home occupying approximately one third of an acre between Birdingbury and Bourton on Dunsmore. With open countryside views, landscaped gardens and extensive recent improvements, this is a superb home for buyers looking for space both inside and out.

At the heart of the property is an impressive dual-aspect sitting room with a characterful stone fireplace and views across the surrounding landscape. A separate dining room provides further entertaining space, while the generous entrance hall offers the flexibility to create an additional dining or seating area.

The newly fitted kitchen brings a contemporary feel to the home, complete with integrated oven, grill, hob, dishwasher and fridge/freezer. There is also a practical utility/boot room, downstairs cloakroom and internal access to the double garage. Recent upgrades include a new boiler, improvements to the heating system, new flooring to several ground-floor rooms and ground-floor rewiring.

Four well-proportioned bedrooms are arranged around the first-floor galleried landing. The principal bedroom benefits from countryside views, fitted wardrobes, a dressing area and en-suite bathroom. Bedrooms two and three also feature fitted storage, with a family bathroom serving the remaining bedrooms.

Outside is where The Sidings really comes into its own. Wrought iron gates open onto a substantial driveway, while established gardens provide lawns, mature planting and a Koi pond. The south-east facing rear garden has been designed for entertaining, with an Indian sandstone terrace, covered BBQ area,
