Mosers Hall – A Quintessential Grade II Listed Town House, ideally positioned in the very heart of Shrewsbury town centre, this elegant period home spans three storeys and offers versatile accommodation, including beautifully presented living spaces, five bedrooms, three bathrooms and a high-spec kitchen/dining room – perfect for both entertaining and everyday living. The property features a striking conservatory and a truly unique roof terrace garden, providing a rare and private outdoor retreat. Rich in period charm yet perfectly suited to modern living, Mosers Hall seamlessly blends heritage with contemporary comfort. Situated in a vibrant and cosmopolitan town, the residence offers immediate access to boutique shops, cafés, fine dining, and cultural amenities – all just moments from the doorstep of this exceptional historic home.

Ground Floor: A reception hall heralds the grandeur of this period townhouse, leading to a beautifully appointed sitting room and a formal dining room, each brimming with character and charm. A side hall provides access to a stylish cloakroom WC and the exceptional high-spec dining kitchen with new flooring, a space perfectly conceived for entertaining as well as refined family living.

First Floor: The impressive master bedroom benefits from a luxurious en-suite bathroom, complemented by a guest bedroom and a beautifully appointed family bathroom. From this floor, the exquisite roof terrace garden offers a private and enchanting outdoor retreat. The terrace flows gracefully into the conservatory, which features a staircase descending back to the kitchen, providing a seamless interplay between indoor and outdoor living.

Second Floor: Three further elegantly proportioned bedrooms and a refined bathroom provide versatile and comfortable accommodation, ideal for family or guests.

Cellars: Beneath the house lie tanked cellar rooms, offering approximately 41 sq meters of secure and practical storage, a discreet yet invaluable feature in a property of this calibre.
