Ferndale

Hittisleigh, Exeter

- Detached rural home
- Set in a 0.5 acre (approx) plot
- 4 Bedrooms (2 on ground floor)
- 3 Bathrooms
- Completely modernised throughout
- Less than 3 miles from the A30
- Large open plan kitchen/dining/living
- Separate lounge and separate utility
- Large sweeping garden with views
- Useful outbuildings

Set in approximately 0.5 acres of gardens and grounds, Ferndale is a substantially renovated dormer bungalow offering four double bedrooms and three bathrooms, together with generous parking and useful outbuildings. The property has been extensively improved since 2021, creating a comfortable home that combines a peaceful rural setting with easy access to the A30, approximately three miles away.

The ground floor has a practical and flexible layout, with a reception room currently used as an office and gym, a comfortable lounge with a new certificated woodburning stove, and an impressive open-plan kitchen, living and dining space. The kitchen has dark navy cabinetry, quartz worktops, an integrated dishwasher, double oven and central island, while the adjoining utility room has matching units and a door to the garden. A family bathroom with bath and separate dual-head shower and two double bedrooms, including one with an en-suite shower room, complete this floor.

Upstairs are two further double bedrooms, both enjoying countryside views. The principal bedroom has a generous en-suite shower room and walk-in wardrobe, with useful eaves storage available from the upper rooms. The house benefits from full UPVC double glazing, a modern oil-fired boiler and zoned underfloor heating to the kitchen/living/dining area, hallway and office.

Outside, the property has a sweeping lawn to the front, a patio and gardens extending around the house, with two separate entrances providing parking for around six vehicles. The outbuildings add considerable flexibility, including a substantial timber-framed workshop and storage building with power, a further powered lean-to shed and a garden shed. There is also a concrete base that could accommodate a hot tub.

Approached via a shared private lane, Ferndale enjoys a peaceful rural position while remaining conveniently placed for the A30 and wider Devon and Cornwall. With its generous plot, four double bedrooms, three bathrooms, flexible reception space and extensive parking and outbuildings, Ferndale offers a versatile rural home with plenty of scope for family life, working from home or simply enjoying the space and privacy of its surroundings.
